

THIRD OCEANS POLICY SYMPOSIUM

13 November 2009
10am - 4.30pm

Oxford University School of Geography and the Environment,
Halford MacKinder Lecture Theatre, South Parks Road, Oxford OX1 3QY

10.00-12:30

SESSION ONE: REFORMING EU FISHERIES POLICY TO IMPROVE MARINE CONSERVATION AND SUSTAINABLE LIVELIHOODS

(James Thornton, Chair)

1. Introduction (James Thornton, ClientEarth)
  2. Future fisheries management in the EU - why change and how?
(Jan Lindemann, DG Maritime Affairs & Fisheries)
  3. Proposal for a new fishing credit system
(Sandy Luk, ClientEarth, and Melissa Pritchard, Marine Conservation Society)
  4. A Fisher's Perspective (Jerry Percy, Welsh Federation of Fishermens Associations)
  5. Balancing on a Reef: A Case Study in the Evolution of Marine Conservation
(Jon Day, Director – Ecosystem, Conservation and Sustainable Use Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Authority)
  6. Discussion
- LUNCH

1:30 - 4:30

SESSION TWO: GLOBAL MARINE CONSERVATION ISSUES

(Thomas Thornton, Chair)

1. Introduction (Tom Thornton, Oxford University)
  2. Global Perspective on Marine Conservation (Jon-Luc Solandt, Marine Conservation Society)
  3. Raising Awareness through Consumer Eco-Labeling
(Tavis Potts, Scottish Association for Marine Science)
- BREAK
4. Designing Hybrid Marine Management systems in Oceania (Shankar Aswani, UCSB)
  5. Marine Conservation in the Melting Arctic (Tavis Potts)
  6. Discussion