GEOGRAPHY OPEN DAY

Monday 11th June 2018

10:30 - 11:00 Doors open: Registration and Refreshments
A.J. Herbertson (Ground Floor)

11:20 - 11:30 Welcome to the School of Geography
Professor Heather Viles

11:30 - 12:00 Taster Lecture: Economic Inequality and Human Geography
Professor Danny Dorling

12:00 - 12:40 Introduction to the Geography Course and Admissions at Oxford, Q&A session
Dr Beth Greenhough, Admissions Coordinator

12:40 - 14:10 Lunch
Students are taken to colleges for lunch by current undergraduates
Please ensure you are back in the department by 14:10

14:20 - 14:50 Taster Lecture: Windblown Dust: the most significant export from the world's arid zones
Professor Giles Wiggs

END OF EVENTS
ALSO AVAILABLE

A.J. Herbertson Room

- A poster display and university prospectuses will be available throughout the day.
- The departmental librarian will be available with information on readings, the library services and online resources from 10.00 – 11.00

HOW TO FIND US

Geography & Environment Library in the Radcliffe Science Library (RSL): From Parks Road approach the back of the RSL (to the right of the University Museum) and enter via the glass doors in the corner.

School of Geography (OUCE) entrance