

A Retirement Symposium for Professor Andrew Goudie

The Western Desert, Egypt (A.S. Goudie)

Tuesday 27th November 2012
1.50 – 4.30 pm

The Halford Mackinder Lecture Theatre
School of Geography and the Environment
OUCE, South Parks Road
Oxford OX1 3QY

All welcome

Please RSVP to:
jan.burke@ouce.ox.ac.uk

A Retirement Symposium for Professor Andrew Goudie

Tuesday 27th November 2012

The Halford Mackinder Lecture Theatre
School of Geography and the Environment

– PROGRAMME –

- 1.50 pm Welcome and Opening Address
Professor Sarah Whatmore (Head of School)
- Lectures:
- 2.00 pm Professor Sir Ron Cooke (University of York)
“The Desert and the Known”
- 2.30 pm Professor Mike Summerfield (University of Edinburgh)
“The Wider View”
- Reflections:
- 3.00 pm Professor Heather Viles (University of Oxford)
“Andrew Goudie and Technological Developments in Geomorphology: past, present and future”
- 3.15 pm Professor Adrian Parker (Oxford Brookes University)
“In Search of Paradigms Lost”
- 3.30 pm Professor Denys Brunsdon (King’s College London)
“Fifty Shades of Andrew”
- 3.45 pm Professor Piotr Migon (University of Wrocław)
“Geomorphology Without Borders”
- Closing Thanks:
- 4.00 pm Professor David Thomas (University of Oxford)
- 4.15 pm Professor Andrew Goudie (University of Oxford)
- 4.30 pm Tea and Departure
(A J Herbertson Room)